Refúgio da Vila

Manor Home & Culinary School, Portel (Evora), Alentejo

Nestled deep in the heart of Portugal's sunny countryside sits the romantic Refúgio da Vila. Transformed from a centuries-old private manor house, it offers a peaceful retreat off the beaten path, while creating a dreamy atmosphere of simple elegance in a land of rustic grace. Thirty exquisitely furnished rooms and suites offer comfort in the warm, romantic style of Portuguese hospitality and charm. Facilities include a bright three-level restaurant overlooking the courtyard, a cocktail lounge, outdoor pool, library and billiards room with fireplace.

Relax and savour the local cuisine and Alentejo wines. Awaken your senses by exploring the countryside on foot, horseback or bicycle, and visit the many museums, wineries, and enchanted medieval castles, all part of this region's rich traditional history and culture.

Pousadas

The Pousadas make up a network of hotel establishments built by the state, housed in historic buildings, castles, palaces and monasteries, or specially built for that purpose. Their décor and architecture have been carefully studied in order to reflect the history and cultural traditions of the region in which they are located. Special care has been laid on folk architecture, handcrafts, local cuisine and wines. Comfort, a friendly atmosphere and hospitality are a constant feature internationally acknowledged of the Portuguese "Pousadas".

Madeira

The lush semi-tropical island of Madeira, situated in the Atlantic ocean off the west coast of Africa, has long been one of Portugal's most sought after holiday destinations. Its lack of sandy beaches is more than made up for by the many excellent swimming pools and easily accessible neighbouring beach resort island of Porto Santo. Madeira offers a unique combination of extraordinarily beautiful scenery, excellent all year round climate and high standards of accommodation to satisfy every traveller's dream.
